OVERVIEW

STRATEGIC PRODUCTION & LOGISTICS LOCATION IN SOUTHERN POLAND

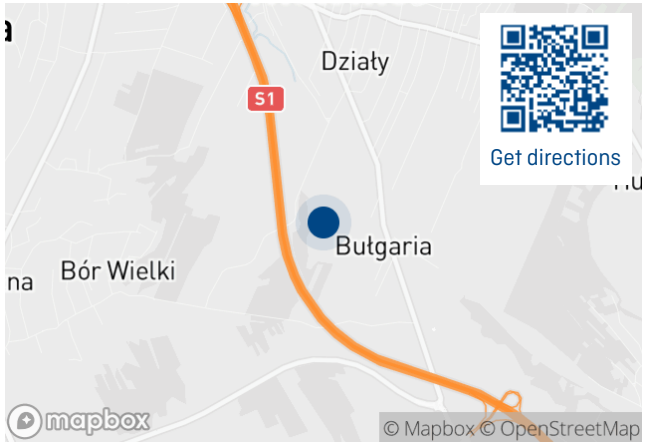

P3 Bielsko-Biała South II is located in Bielsko-Biała in the Silesian Voivodeship, approximately 70 km south of Katowice and within convenient reach of both the Czech and Slovak borders. The property is positioned near the S1 espressway, providing excellent access to the city and the wider regional road network. Its location within one of Poland's most established industrial regions makes it particularly well suited to companies operating in manufacturing, automotive, logistics and regional distribution.

EXCELLENT EXPRESSWAY & CROSS-BORDER CONNECTIVITY

The property benefits from convenient access to both the S52 and S1 expressways, providing efficient connections across southern Poland and towards neighbouring Central European markets. The S52 connects Bielsko-Biała with Cieszyn and the Czech border, while the S1 provides connections north towards Katowice and Katowice Airport in Pyrzowice and south towards Slovakia. This strategic road network enables efficient movement of goods between Poland, Czechia and Slovakia, while also providing connections to the wider national and European transport network.

MODERN FACILITY FOR PRODUCTION & LOGISTICS OPERATIONS

Developed in 2018, P3 Bielsko-Biała South II comprises a modern production and warehouse building with integrated office space, providing approximately 12,439 m² of GLA. The property combines modern industrial accommodation with a location in the established manufacturing environment of Bielsko-Biała and the wider Silesian region. Its proximity to major expressways and international borders makes the facility particularly suitable for production, warehousing, automotive-related operations,
