STRATEGIC LOGISTICS LOCATION IN CENTRAL GERMANY

P3 Erfurt II is located in Drei Gleichen, Thuringia, around 17 km southwest of Erfurt. The property sits within an established logistics corridor and benefits from its central position in Germany, providing efficient access to major economic regions across the country. Erfurt, the state capital of Thuringia, is an important political, economic and cultural centre with a diversified economy spanning microelectronics, mechanical engineering, telecommunications, food, construction materials, horticulture and media.

EXCELLENT MOTORWAY & PUBLIC TRANSPORT CONNECTIVITY

The property is located around 3 km from the A4 motorway, while the wider area also provides access to the A71 motorway, placing the site at the heart of Germany's national transport network. The nearest bus stop, Wandersleben, Gewerbegebiet, is approximately 600 m away, and Wandersleben railway station is located around 1.6 km north of the property. Erfurt also benefits from an international airport and high-speed rail services from its main station.

STRONG INDUSTRIAL & LOGISTICS ENVIRONMENT

The immediate surroundings are characterised by logistics buildings and photovoltaic systems, reflecting the area's established industrial profile. Erfurt's position as a modern industrial, trade, exhibition and university location further strengthens the regional economy, while its motorway, rail and air connections support efficient nationwide distribution. Combined with the site's central location, these advantages make P3 Drei Gleichen well suited for logistics, warehousing, distribution and industrial operations.
