STRATEGIC LOGISTICS LOCATION IN THE DÜSSELDORF METROPOLITAN REGION

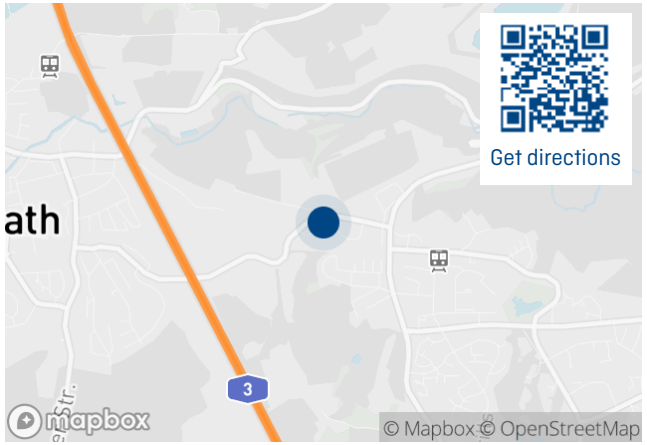

P3 Erkrath is located in Erkrath, east of Düsseldorf in North Rhine-Westphalia, within the established Duisburg/Lower Rhine logistics region. This major logistics corridor stretches along the Rhine and benefits from its proximity to the Amsterdam, Rotterdam and Antwerp (ARA) ports, making the region an important hinterland hub for international freight traffic. Its strategic position within the Düsseldorf metropolitan area provides excellent access to major regional and international markets.

EXCELLENT MOTORWAY & PUBLIC TRANSPORT CONNECTIVITY

The property benefits from convenient access to the A3 motorway, connecting Duisburg and Cologne, and the A46 motorway, linking Düsseldorf and Wuppertal. The wider area also offers access to the A44 motorway, further strengthening regional connectivity. The nearest bus stop, Erkrath Neanderbad, is located approximately 200 metres from the property, providing convenient public transport access for employees.

STRONG INTERNATIONAL LOGISTICS & TRANSPORT HUB

The Duisburg/Lower Rhine region is one of Germany's key logistics locations, supported by strong connections to the Rhine inland ports and the major seaports of Western Europe. Düsseldorf International Airport and the inland ports along the Rhine are within a short driving distance, providing excellent multimodal connectivity. Combined with the region's strong concentration of logistics and wholesale companies, these advantages make P3 Erkrath an attractive location for regional and international logistics, warehousing and distribution operations.
